

The Center for Global Migration Studies Presents

Census 2020: Race and Whose Story “Counts”

April 19, 2018 · Stamp Student Union

Breakfast and Introductory Remarks, 9:30 am

Julie Greene, University of Maryland

Panel 1: New Census, New Conflicts, 10:00 am

Speakers:

- Terry Ao Minnis, Asian Americans Advancing Justice | AAJC
- Samer E. Khalaf, American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee
- Arturo Vargas, NALEO Education Fund

Moderator: Janelle Wong, University of Maryland

Lunch, 12:00 pm

Panel 2: Racial Anxieties and the Census, 1:00 pm

Speakers:

- Carolyn Liebler, University of Minnesota
- Stella Rouse, University of Maryland
- D’Vera Cohn, Pew Research

Moderator: Oscar Barbarin, University of Maryland

Keynote, 3:00pm

Melissa Nobles, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, “Shades of Citizenship Revisited: The Persistence of Racial Politics and Census-Taking”

Please RSVP to globalmigration@umd.edu

Visit our website at: <https://go.umd.edu/fqv>

COLLEGE OF
ARTS & HUMANITIES

Co-Sponsored By:

Dept. of African American Studies
Dept. of Anthropology
Asian American Studies
U.S. Latina/o Studies

Center for American Politics and Citizenship
Consortium on Race, Gender, and Ethnicity
Dept. of Government and Political Science

Maryland Population Research
Center
Dept. of Sociology
Latin American Studies Center