

University of Maryland
Department of Psychology 6th Annual
Spring Diversity Research Conference

Please join us for a morning of cutting edge research presentations from local researchers and our esteemed keynote speaker:

Bethany Letiecq, Ph.D.

Associate Professor in Human Development and Family Science
George Mason University

“Meaning Making on the Margins: Partnering with Undocumented Immigrants to Understand and Promote Mental Health in Context”

Friday, April 27nd, 2018

Check-in at 8:30am

Conference from 9:00am-12:30pm

Lunch at 12:30pm

College Park Campus

Samuel Riggs IV Alumni Center

Orem Hall A

Also Presenting:

Antoine Banks, Ph.D. ♦ Allison Ratto, Ph.D.

Hannah Samuelson ♦ Tanya Tavassolie

Register online by April 13th to confirm lunch

Registration will remain open until April 26th, but lunch is not guaranteed

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/umd-psychology-annual-spring-diversity-conference-tickets-42848652473>

Questions or comments? Email: UMDdiversitycommittee@gmail.com

