

Time Use Data Access System Workshop
Morrill Hall and LeFrak Hall
University of Maryland
June 29-July 1, 2016

Wednesday June 29

- 8:30 -9:00      Introductions to TUDAS and Overview of Workshop
Presenter: Sandra Hofferth, University of Maryland
- 9:00-10:00      Time Use Research: History and Current Archives
Presenter: Kimberly Fisher, University of Oxford
- 10:00-10:15      Break
- 10:15-11:00      New Developments: Sequence Analysis
Presenter: Ignace Glorieux, Vrije Universiteit,
Brussels, Belgium
- 11:00-noon      Introduction to the American Time Use Survey
(ATUS)
Presenters: Staff, Bureau of Labor Statistics
- Noon-1:00      Lunch
- 1:00-2:15      Introduction to TUDAS Extract Builder TUS-X
Presenters: Joan Garcia Roman, Sarah Flood,
University of Minnesota
- 2:15-2:30      Break
- 2:30-5:00      Lab exercise: Creating and analyzing basic data files

Thursday June 30

- 8:30-9:15      Measuring Child Care Time using Time Diaries
Presenter: Liana Sayer, University of Maryland
- 9:15-9:45      Measuring Elder Care
Presenters: Joan Garcia Roman, Sarah Flood, University of Minnesota
- 9:45-10:45      ATUS Eating and Health Module (international work as well)
Presenter: Karen Hamrick, Economic Research Service, USDA

10:45-11:00	Break
11:00-noon	Well-Being Kimberly Fisher, University of Oxford
Noon-1:00	Lunch
1:00-1:45	Introduction to ATUS-X hierarchical data files Presenter: Sarah Flood, University of Minnesota
1:45-2:00	Break
2:00-5:00	Lab exercises: Creating and analyzing hierarchical ATUS data files; Continuing work on basic ATUS data files
5:00	On your own

Friday July 1

8:30-9:30	Linking files using ATUS and CPS Presenter: Sarah Flood, University of Minnesota
9:30-10:30	Time use from an Economic Perspective Harley Frazis, Bureau of Labor Statistics
10:30-10:45	Break
10:45-Noon	Data Comparability Issues across Time and Space; Open forum for questions Presenters: Workshop Staff
Noon-12:30	Lunch
12:30-2:00	Student Workshop presentations
2:00-2:15	Wrap-up and end of workshop

Note: the Schedule is subject to change